

THREAT ASSESSMENT & MANAGEMENT

An Integrated Threat Assessment & Management Team:

The University of Arizona's TAM Team is a multi-disciplinary group of University employees that reviews situations in which an individual poses or may pose a threat of harm to self, others or to our UA community.

The "TAM Team" meets to assess situations in which someone may present a danger to our community and develops plans to minimize danger.

CONTACT THE TAM TEAM BY CALLING THE FOLLOWING:

Call 9-1-1 if the threat or threatening behavior poses an immediate danger to you or others!

NOTIFY THE TAM TEAM:

- If you hear an explicit or implied threat of violence to any member of our community (or the public when on our campus)
- Whenever you observe a student, employee or visitor exhibit behavior that can reasonably be interpreted as threatening
- When you or your fellow students or co-workers express concern about personal safety in the workplace, classroom or anywhere on our campus
- Whenever any UA supervisor, manager or administrator would like training on workplace behavior

All instances of violent or threatening conduct should be reported promptly to:

- UAPD (621-8273)
- Dean of Students 621-7057
- Human Resources 621-3662
